Special meetings of the corporation may be called by the Standing Committee to meet at any time and place. A quorum at a special meeting shall consist of not less than seven members.

2. At all meetings the President shall take the chair as soon as a quorum is present; and the record of the preceding meeting shall then be read, unless such reading is dispensed with by the unanimous consent of those present. After which at all special meetings the business for which the meeting was called shall be transacted, and at the annual meeting the order of business shall be as follows: —

First. — The unfinished business and the assignments of the last meeting shall be announced by the Secretary to the President and taken up in order.

Second. — The Secretary shall be called on to submit a written report of the doings of the Standing Committee for the year ending with the previous 31st of December.

Ninth. — On the announcement of the vote the newly elected President shall take the chair, and shall give the members present an opportunity to present new business.

Tenth. — The newly elected President shall appoint a committee to audit the Treasurer's accounts.

ARTICLE IV.

OF OFFICERS.

1. The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Secretary and Treasurer shall be ex-officiis members of the Standing Committee, which shall consist of seven persons in all. The officers and the Standing Committee shall be chosen by ballot at the annual meeting of the corporation, an adjournment thereof, or at a meeting in lieu of such annual meeting, as above provided; and they shall hold their offices for one year, or until others are duly chosen and qualified in their stead. Any vacancy occurring in any of the above offices from death, resignation or inability, shall be filled by the Standing Committee at their next regular meeting or at a special meeting to be called for the purpose before such regular meeting.

2. The President shall preside at all meetings of the corporation. If he is absent, the Vice-President, and, if the Vice-President is also absent, a President pro tempore, chosen by hand vote of the members of the corporation present, shall preside, and shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the President.

3. The Secretary shall warn the members of all meetings of the corporation, according as he may be directed by votes of the Standing Committee. He shall call the meetings of the Standing Committee as he may be directed by the chairman of the committee or on the request in writing of any two members thereof. He shall carry on all the correspondence of the corporation not otherwise provided for, and shall, when the correspondence is of importance, preserve copies of the letters sent and the original letters received, for transmission with his records to his successor in office. He shall keep an exact record of all meetings of the corporation and of the Standing Committee, with the names of the members present, entering in full all reports of committees, which may be accepted, by either body, unless otherwise directed.

At the January meeting of the Standing Committee he shall make a written report of the doings of that body for the year ending on the previous 31st of December; and, if the report is approved, he shall present it at the annual meeting of the corporation.

4. The Treasurer shall, when directed, as provided in the next paragraph, make disbursements; and he shall also collect all moneys due to the corporation, and shall keep regular and faithful account of all the moneys and funds of the corporation which shall come into his hands and of all receipts and expenditures connected with the same, which accounts shall always be open to the inspection of members of the corporation. He shall make no investments and pay no moneys without either the approval of a majority of the Standing Committee or else of such officer or committee as said Standing Committee shall appoint to act for it in these matters. At the January meeting of the Standing Committee he shall make a written report of his doings for the year ending on the previous 31st of December; and, if his report is approved, he shall present it at the annual meeting of the corporation.

ARTICLE V.

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee shall, at the first meeting after the annual meeting of the corporation in each year, elect a chairman, whose duty it shall be to preside at all meetings of the committee. In his absence a chairman pro tempore may be chosen by hand vote. The Standing Committee shall meet at least once in every month, and a quorum shall consist of not less than three members. The Standing Committee may nominate or refuse to nominate new members of the corporation, may accept or decline gifts offered to the corporation, may approve or disapprove investments or expenditures proposed by the Treasurer, may approve or disapprove all bills against the corporation, may appoint subcommittees of their number, may appoint and remove agents, may engage whatever assistance is needed to administer the affairs of the corporation, may designate such agents and employees by such titles as they may deem proper, and, in general, may exercise all the executive powers of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI.

OF THE SEAL.

The corporate seal shall be a circular, flat-faced die of about an inch and a half in diameter, with the name of the corporation, the year of its organization, the word "Massachusetts" and the figure of a pine tree so engraved on its face that it can be embossed on paper by pressure.

ARTICLE VII.

OF AMENDMENTS.

At any annual meeting of the corporation, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, these By-laws may be amended, altered or repealed by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting, provided that notice of such proposed change shall have been given in the call of the meeting.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

The Standing Committee of the Trustees of Public Reservations submits herewith its thirtieth annual report.

Virginia Wood, in Stoneham, is in excellent condition. The systematic forestry work which has been carried on by the Metropolitan Park Commission in this section of the Middlesex Fells has been noticeably successful in Virginia Wood, and it is to be hoped that the same policy will be continued by the Metropolitan District Commission which has succeeded to the powers and duties of the Park Commission. The superintendent of the Middlesex Fells Division reports that there have been no fires in Virginia Wood during the past year, and no injury caused by gypsy moths or other insects.

Goodwill Park, in Falmouth, has been cared for by Mr. W. E. Lawrence of that town, who has acted as our local committee. The town, as usual, made an appropriation of $300 against which all charges have been made. The roads have been put in order and maintained in good condition; some dead wood has been cut out and a number of trees that had blown down have been removed. The picnic ground has been mowed several times and kept in good order. The trees were sprayed in the spring as far as they could be reached from the roadways, and this fall the nests of the gypsy moths have been painted with creosote. The red pines which were planted a year ago have prospered, and additional planting is recommended for the coming year.

Mount Ann Park, in Gloucester, suffered from the forest fires which were extensive in that vicinity during a dry spell last summer. To stop the spreading of fires which were burning outside the park the fire warden deemed it necessary to set some back fires in the park north of the main path, and to use the road as a fire stop. The result was that this part of the park was pretty well burnt over, and considerable trimming and clearing up will be necessary. The remaining portion of the park is in good condition, and calls for no special mention.

Rocky Narrows, in Sherborn, has been used in the summer months by a considerable number of campers. The committee finds that the visitors incline to use the hill for camping, which is forbidden them, rather than the more accessible camping ground which has been specially provided for this purpose. Nevertheless, there have been no serious infractions of the rules, and the campers have left the grounds in unusually good condition. The replacing of the bridge at a higher level could not, on account of local conditions, be accomplished last summer, but will be done this coming year. The damage to this reservation from the gypsy moth appears to have been less than in previous years.

Governor Hutchinson's Field, in Milton, has received general care. In addition to this some forestry work was required. A fringe of mixed growth was removed which was encroaching on the open field, and without being a desirable addition, was increasing the danger of fire among the larger trees lower down near the river bank. In carrying out this work a number of seedling trees were left standing in the hope that they may replace the older trees as they become exhausted and can be no longer retained. The Trustees under the will of Mrs. Mary A. Cunningham contributed $100 toward the care of the field.

Monument Mountain Reservation, in Great Barrington, was visited again this year by members of the committee, and the condition of the reservation and its future requirements carefully considered. In previous reports full accounts have been given of the grievous damage that has been done by fires spreading to the reservation from adjacent woodlands, which at times have done considerable damage. Then came the chestnut blight against which no remedy has been found. This disease has already killed most of the chestnut trees, and those still remaining are doomed. For several years your committee, with the advice of forestry experts, have been removing the chestnut growth and planting pine seedlings in order that the mountain may be reforested. It has seemed to them for some time that it was very desirable that this work, which requires constant supervision and must extend over a series of years, should be in the hands of a local committee or body, if such a condition could be brought about. An arrangement has recently been arrived at which, in the opinion of your Committee, is most fortunate for the Trustees in carrying out their obligations, and for the public for whom the reservation was created, as it gives assurance that the care and improvement of the reservation will be efficiently administered. After careful consideration the Laurel Hill Association of Stockbridge has consented to act as agent of the Trustees in the care and maintenance of the reservation. The Laurel Hill Association is the best known and most successful organization of its kind in New England, and perhaps in this country. It has been the inspiration of the village improvement associations throughout the land, and its work in Stockbridge is known and admired by every visitor to that beautiful town. An agreement has been executed between the Trustees and the association, covering the details of the arrangement between them, which is already in force. Your Committee feel that the Trustees and the public are to be congratulated upon the willingness of the Laurel Hill Association to accept this responsibility. They desire to add that before entering upon this arrangement full approval was obtained from Miss Butler, to whom the Trustees and the public are indebted for the gift of the reservation and the fund for its maintenance. Although there are no longer any buildings on this reservation, a little income is derived from it as rent for arable land, and occasionally something is received from the sale of wood.

The Pine Knoll, in Sheffield, was also visited by members of the Committee and found to be in good condition. A better definition of the boundary of the reservation on the side towards the town, either by planting or a wall, has been suggested, but no funds are available therefor at the present time. A few of the older pines have died and will be removed. The few trees that were planted last year appear to be in good condition. An ornamental sign has been prepared to hang at the entrance, and two suitable stone seats or benches have been set up.

Petticoat Hill, in Williamsburg, was visited by a member of the Committee in company with a forestry advisor and Mrs. Nash, who established this reservation. In general, conditions were found to be satisfactory. Some dead trees should be removed from the vicinity of the path to the summit, and the vistas halfway to and at the summit should be opened more widely. On the back side of the hill the chestnut is being removed, and funds derived from its sale are available for replanting. As some of the wood will have to be carried out over land which is to be replanted, it was thought best to postpone planting until the coming spring, which will give an opportunity to locate and rough out a road during the winter, and to get out the wood which has already been cut. The increase in the fares on the electric car line between Northampton and Williamsburg largely diminished the number of visitors to Petticoat Hill last summer. The reservation, however, is used by the people of the town, and is growing more attractive each year.

The Corporation has lost one member during the year by the death of Winthrop Murray Crane, former Governor of Massachusetts and United States Senator, widely known for his public spirit and private beneficences. Though not active in the affairs of the Trustees, its purposes had his approval and the guaranty of his name.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY P. WALCOTT, Chairman,
CHARLES S. SARGENT,
NATHANIEL T. KIDDER,
CHARLES S. RACKEMANN,
EDWARD W. FORBES,
GEORGE WIGGLESWORTH, Treasurer,
